

SOFTWARE

AXView®

Door Access Control & Monitoring Software

AXView is a monitoring and control software designed for professionals who are looking for a door access control and monitoring software with high performance, extreme reliability and powerful graphical user-interface.

AXView graphical interface gives you real-time control over your access control system. With AXView, you get instant point-and-click control over controllers, doors, inputs, outputs and relays. Its full alarm management and event-based trigger capabilities give you virtually unlimited system control possibilities. Fully customizable, AXView lets you create status icons to monitor and control your system live.

- User Friendly Interface
- Scaleable
- Multiple card reader and keypad formats supported
- Event Database Limited Only by Hard Disk Size
- Adapting polling technology
- MSDE/SQL Server Database
- Multiple Language Support
- Distributed Processing
- Import Floor Plans Directly into AXView
- Unlimited Number of Floor Plans
- View or Control any Device or Custom Object
- On-line Firmware Upgrades
- Elevator Control
- Compatible with Windows® 98, 2000 and XP (O/S may limit features and functionality)
- Link any object (input, output, etc.) in your system to a graphical representation
- Local or Network Edition:
 - Local Edition is fully functional, but can only be run locally
 - Network Edition is network compatible and includes a hardware key

